

SUNDAY SCHOOL TAKE HOME PAGE

To parents:

This page lets you know what your child learned in Sunday school today. In addition, you will find this week's memory verse, a suggested activity, and a short prayer to reinforce the lesson. Being involved and interacting with your child can be very rewarding for both of you.

What we learned:

Today, the children learned that nothing can escape God's notice. Life may not seem fair, but God is. He rewards obedience and punishes sin. As a result of studying about God's just nature, children will ask for God's forgiveness and for His help to avoid sinning. (Scriptures used: Genesis 19:14-26, Numbers 20:2-12, Romans 14:10b-12, Hebrews 4:13)

Memory Work:

“For I am a great king,’ says the LORD Almighty, ‘and my name is to be feared among the nations.’” Malachi 1:14 NIV

Practice this verse several times with your child during the week. This will not only help him or her remember the verse, but also it will reinforce what he or she learned during class.

Suggested Parent/Child Activity:

Play a game of Consequences with your child or with the entire family. The leader will call out either good or bad actions such as, "I study hard for a test at school" or "I cheat on a test at school." The other players will shout out if the action will have good or bad consequences. Depending on the age of the group you can take turns being the leader.

After the game, discuss how all of our actions—either good or bad—have consequences. Read Romans 14:11-12 and Hebrews 4:13. Explain that we will receive consequences for the sin and rewards for the good when we stand before God's judgment seat one day.

Daily Prayer:

Teach us O Lord to keep our ways pure and to follow Your laws, for Your laws are good; let us delight in them. Please forgive us for the sins we commit, keep us from disgrace, and let us long to do what is right. Amen.
