

CHOOSING PEACE

Two friends are arguing over a game and ask me to choose a side.
How can I choose peace?

A sibling borrowed my favorite possession without asking and now it's broken. How can I choose peace?

I hurt my mom's feelings by talking behind her back.
How can I choose peace?

My neighbor yelled at me when I accidentally bumped into his car while goofing off with my friends. How can I choose peace?

A classmate is jealous of my good test grade and calls me names.
How can I choose peace?

An adult at church asks me to stop causing distractions during the sermon. How can I choose peace?

My teacher accuses me of wrongdoing even though I'm innocent.
How can I choose peace?

My parents ask my opinion about a restaurant but choose a different one instead. How can I choose peace?