

SUNDAY SCHOOL TAKE HOME PAGE

To parents:

This page lets you know what your child learned in Sunday school today. In addition, you will find this week's memory verse, a suggested activity, and a short prayer to reinforce the lesson. Being involved and interacting with your child can be very rewarding for both of you.

What we learned:

Today, your child learned that while he or she needs to be aware of the sinful influences around him or her, your child should not have a harsh or fault-finding attitude towards other people. At times, it may be easy for your child to worry about the speck of dust in someone else's eye, but never notice the plank in his or her own eye. (Scripture used: Matthew 7:1-5)

Memory Verse:

"Do not judge, or you too will be judged." Matthew 7:1 NIV

Practice this verse several times with your child during the week. This will help your child to remember the verse, and it will help to reinforce what he or she learned during class.

Suggested Parent/Child Activity:

Read Matthew 7:1-5 together as a family and then discuss a time when you judged someone unfairly. Next, read James 4:12 and discuss who is the real Lawgiver and Judge, while we, thankfully, are not. Finally, read Galatians 5:14 and discuss how we are supposed to treat our neighbors.

Daily Prayer:

Dear Lord, thank You for teaching us not to have a fault-finding attitude towards others. Make me aware of my own faults so that I may be more merciful to other people. Amen.
